

TO A POET - II (MUSICAL IMPROMPTU, VIDEO)

This video piece is the result of a performance during which the musicians have composed and played an impromptu in front of contradictory species of writing; so bestowing to the music a character more and more intimate and secret.

To this situation was opposed an image of a river, a maritime evocation : quiet, identical to itself. The only changes are the little vibrations which bring to mind "the sailing to any Sea, to any Far, to the Beginning" (Fernando Pessoa).

The words at the end are also from "Ode Marítima" by Fernando Pessoa :

Y'D LIKE TO TAKE TO DEATH A SOUL OVERFLOWING WITH SEA

This work is dedicated to Fernando Pessoa.
